

2007 Nebbiolo

Tasting Notes:

The aromas include white tea, roses, white pepper and tar. The flavors consist of Bing cherry, cranberry, pencil lead and sage. The palate is generous and spicy, the structure is well defined, and the tannins are persistent. This wine will benefit from decanting and aging.

Vineyard Data:

Vineyard: Luna Matta Vineyard

Location: Paso Robles Appellation

Elevation: 1800 feet

Clones: VCR 230, VCR 142

Exposure: South-facing hillside

Vine Age: 6 years

Soils: Calcareous, clay

Winemaking:

Fermented in 1 ton bins with 1 punchdown and 1 pump-over per day. Giornata believes in minimal handling and intervention where the goal is not extraction and intensity, but finesse and balance. Barrels - 50% new French Oak (Taransaud) 50% neutral.

97 cases produced.